

NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER

First Presbyterian Church has been sponsoring the National Day of Prayer since 1992. All Christians in the community are encouraged to meet together at our local County Courthouse on the first Thursday in May. This ministry has grown to the extent that other churches and individuals in the community participate in music, worship, and prayer on that day. The 2010 May event will be led by Rev. Randy Bostick, Pastor of Oakland Baptist Church.

PRAYER MINISTRY TEAM

The Prayer Ministry Team, led by our Pastor Don Elliott, meets regularly every other month for one hour just before the meeting of committees on Committee Night. Members of this team are Susanne Cooper, Katie Drewry, Brett Grantham, Kimberly Grantham, Deborah Kiddy, Velma Long, Richard Milam, Kim Pratt, Sherri Shipp, Becky Stewart, Cindy Vann and Debbie Worsham. The Prayer Ministry Team oversees all prayer efforts at First Presbyterian Church including various other short term prayer events.

A monthly prayer flyer is provided to the congregation entitled Church Pray! distributed by Intercessors for America focusing on current matters for prayer that are of interest during the month.

Prayer for our troops with names of members of family and friends stationed overseas and in the armed services are also available on our resource tables.

*Anyone wishing to join any prayer group

E-MAIL PRAYER CHAIN

Many have left the the telephone Prayer Chain to participate in the e-mail prayer ministry which receives prayer requests instantly as they are needed. They share in all the prayer needs that are activated on the Prayer Chain. There are a total of more than 60 members of this ministry, and it has been a vital resource for urgent needs as well as ongoing supplications which the LORD richly blesses. The coordinator is Becky Stewart.

CIRCLE OF PRAYER

The Circle of Prayer began in February, 1994. Its specific function is to receive prayer requests from the congregation after the worship service each Sunday morning. Cards are available in the pews and may be placed in the offering plate during the service. Cards for mailing are signed after the short prayer in the chapel for that Sunday, and these are mailed the next day. The current members of this group are: Becky Stewart, coordinator, Alberto Albarracin, Cindy Blair, Steve Blair, Lisa Burgess, Mary Bratton Burgess, Ricky Burgess, John Burnett, Susanne Cooper, Katie Drewry, Rick Grier, Jack Griffith, Dianne Lambert, Randy Lambert, Richard Milam, Beverly Napier, Billy Napier, Pat Palmer, Dave Shanklin, Harrison Spear, Janis Spear and Johnny Taylor. Sherri Shipp and Gloria Williams are substitutes.

PRAYER IN THE CHAPEL

The chapel stands open for prayer each day for anyone who would like a small quiet room for meditation and prayer. This room is just off the Sanctuary and is also used on Sunday mornings by the Circle of Prayer.

PRAYER WARRIORS

Prayer Warriors, headed by Susanne Cooper and Deborah Kiddy, was begun in 1993, and is an effective effort for our children. There are about 90 members who are assigned and pray for all children of FPC. The effort is equally enjoyable to the children as well as adult members. Unique friendships have developed, and the effective prayer support of our children is valuable to the future of this church and the work of the Lord.

PRAYER ANGELS

Prayer Angels is a ministry formed nine years ago to provide prayer support by the young people of our congregation to older members. It is headed by Katie Drewry and Kim Pratt and is made up of children and young people who are each assigned to pray for an older person. Brett and Kimberly Grantham assist with the children. This effort provides opportunities for young children to learn about prayer while encouraging unique and lasting friendships.
