

The Women's Ministry at FPC strives to create opportunities for relationships among women of all ages to flourish. Through studying God's Word, serving others, and simply being together, we hope to support each other in growing deeper in our faith and living it out! Find a way you can plug in through some of the different events this fall.

Women 2 Women Groups: SUNDAY SCHOOL "No Other Gods" by Kelly Minter, video and discussion. This class is led by Kimberly Grantham and meets Sundays at 9:30 am in the Kids' House (already begun, contact Kimberly to join!)

MORNING STUDY "Parenting" by Paul David Tripp; Let's meet and discuss this book plus scripture, as it points us to parent in light of the gospel. This study is led by Laura Kate Carmichiel and Katy Stanley and will meet every other Tuesday (begins September 17); 9-10:15 am in the church library.

EVENING STUDY "It's Not Supposed To Be This Way" by Lysa Terkeurst, video and discussion. This study is led by Kim Pratt and Jennifer LeGoff and will meet Mondays for 6 weeks at 5:30pm at FPC Youth House, beginning September 23.

Service Opportunities:

- FPC is working on a church-wide collection for Samaritan's Purse. Please support this effort by donating the monthly requested items.
- Joy in Bloom is led by Tammy Pace. Volunteers will take the Sunday morning flowers and makes them into smaller arrangements to be joyfully delivered to people. Help is needed!
- Knit for Kids is a group of women who knit booties, hats, and sweaters for different local and overseas missions. They are willing to teach anyone interested, and kids are welcome to come help and learn too! This ministry is led by Becky Stewart and meets Mondays 10-11 am in the Education Wing.

Women's Ministries organizes and serves our church body in the following specific ways:

- Hostessing family of deceased during funerals/visitations.
- Organizing Bridal Showers
- Organizing meal plans for new mothers and members as needed for various reasons. If you would like to be a 'service coordinator' for these events, please volunteer below. All of these events are mainly coordinated through our Women's Ministry email.

Fellowship Opportunities:

- Movie Nights!! Stay tuned for future movies.
- Cookie Swap- December 8 (tentatively) will be our second annual cookie swap! Bring a dozen, take a dozen. More info later
- WM is looking for someone to organize special events. If you are interested in leading in the planning and execution (with help) of special speakers, dinners, girls' night out, or retreats, please volunteer.

You may sign-up and volunteer for these events/ ministries using the bulletin insert or by emailing the FPC Women's Ministry direct,
